Dear Major Adair:

Reference is made to our letter of January 8, 1985.

A copy of the Missing Air Crew Report and a memorandum reviewing the circumstances surrounding your crews disappearance were found in LT Gatlin's burial/MIA file. You were the only one fortunate enough to survive. I hope these two documents provide the information you are seeking.

Mr. E. W. Cowart

Dear Mr. Cowart:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

H. FELDMAN
Major General
The Quartermaster General

Dear Mr. Bonura:

Your letter to the American Graves Registration Command concerning the late Staff Sergeant Milton E. Cowart, has been referred to us for reply.

The official Report of Burial shows that the remains of Staff Sergeant Cowart were originally interred in Manderscheid, Germany, but were later disinterred and moved to a more suitable site where constant care of the grave can be assured by our Forces in the field.

The Report of Burial further discloses that the remains of Staff Sergeant Cowart are now interred in Plot YYY, Row 5, Grave 50, in the United States Military Cemetery St. Avold, France, located twenty-three miles east of Metz, France.

I regret to advise you that the Report of Burial on file in this office does not indicate the condition of the decedent's body at the time of reburial.

Please be advised that the remains of Staff Sergeant Cowart were recovered by members of the 608th Quartermaster Grave Registration Company.

A copy of your letter has been forwarded to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C., for direct reply relative to the circumstances surrounding the death of Staff Sergeant Cowart as that office has jurisdiction over matters of this nature.

RE: Cowart, Milton E.

Dear Sirs:

I am writing you this letter in regards to my son, Staff Sgt., Milton E. Cowart, 18, 190, 494, 575th Bomb Sqd., 391st Bomb Group, Ninth Air Force.

I am still trying to get all the information possible concerning my son's death. His wife Mrs. Carolyn E. Cowart had been notified that his body has been recovered in Germany and his remains are now interred in Plot YYY, Row 5, Grave 50, in the United States Cemetery, St. Avold, France., located about twenty-three miles from Metz, France.

Now I would like to know just where his body was found and on what date. Was it buried or found out in the open and in what condition when found. Do you have any information as to who found his body or the cause of his death and was he given any kind of medical treatment before death.

I have been through months of anxiety since this terrible tragedy has happened and I feel like if I could find out just this little bit of information direct from you maybe my mind would be relieved about my son and of his giving his life in the fight for freedom of our great Country.

Thanking you in advance for any information you will send me,

I remain,

E. W. Cowart

Please be assured, however, that your feelings in this matter are fully appreciated, and that your response, when received, will be acted upon with a minimum of delay.

You need have no anxiety that the remains returned to you will not be those of your husband, inasmuch as every precaution is taken to preserve the identity of our deceased military personnel.

The body was properly identified before interment, and, at the time of interment, his identification tag was buried with his body for future identification.

Dear Mrs. Cowart:

Your letter concerning your husband, the late Staff Sergeant Milton E. Cowart, has been received in this office.

The official Report of Burial discloses that the remains of your husband were interred in Plot YYY, Row 5, Grave 50, in the United States Military Cemetery, St. Avold, France, located approximately twenty-five miles east of Metz, France.

There are no provisions at the present time whereby the War Department may furnish photographs of individual graves located overseas. However, it is anticipated that, within the current calendar year, the War Department through the Headquarters, Army Air Forces, will be able to provide, upon request of the next of kin, a photograph of the military cemetery in which rest the remains of their loved one.

The War Department has now been authorized to remove the remains of your husband, at Government expense, to the final resting place which you designate.

When the necessary preliminaries have been completed, a letter with an information pamphlet and a "Request for Disposition" form attached will be mailed to you. Dear Sir:

In a recent letter to me from Major Edward F. Witsell, telling me of the report now available in the War Department received from the American Graves Registration Service Command states that my husband's body has been recovered and buried in a United States Military Cemetery in France.

Major Witsell, referred me to you for further inquiry regarding the location of my husband's grave.

I would be grateful to know in what cemetery in France is my husband, and what is his grave number.

Could it be possible for me to receive some pictures of his grave.

Is there any way that I can find proof that it was my husband's body that was found? Shouldn't I receive one of his dog tags or some little proof? My husband wore a wedding ring with both our initials in it. I wonder if it was found?

I want to know will it be possible to have my husband sent home, it is my wish and the wish of his family.

I'D like all the information I can get about this and about his grave.

My husband was a brave young American boy and I'm so proud of him. I don't really know the cause of his death but I'm sure he bailed out of his plane.

Only pray that he didn't suffer and that his body wasn't mistreated. Can you in some way tell me if you know was his body in good condition and can I have him sent home in the near future?

I believe it will take all doubt away if I can learn all these things. I'M so thankful that he was found as it's like a load has been lifted but now it's the doubt that it may not be him. I'm glad though to know that if it is my husband that he is not in Germany and that he is buried among his friends and comrades.

Please give me all the information you can or refer me to some one who can. I'll be so grateful to you for any information you have and for getting me some pictures of the grave.
