

Hogan, Donald I.

Donald I. Hogan 1917 ~ 2005 OGDEN - Donald I. Hogan passed away peacefully Friday, October 21, 2005. He was deeply loved by family and friends and those who cared for him. He can now be himself, freed from the pains of his mortal body.

He was born June 3, 1917 in West Jordan, Utah the son of Charles Eric and Ada Francis Hogan, the youngest of nine children. As a youth he worked very hard on a dairy farm. In 1938, Don was called to serve an LDS Mission in Australia from which he gained a strong personal conviction and testimony of the Gospel and also a love of Australia and the people. After much study and training, Don flew the B-17 and B-24 bombers in World War II completing 35 missions mostly over Germany. Through the course of his combat effectiveness, he was awarded several medals and awards. On June 26, 1945, Don married Mable Peterson in Alexandria, Louisiana. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Three children were born to this family. His occupation during most of his adult life was spent as an industrial engineer. He did work in connection with various missiles out of Hill Air Force Base. He is survived by his children, Patri-cia (John) Reeve; daughter-in-law, Susan (Paul) Hogan; and Philip (Jayel) Hogan; eight grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; all eight siblings; his wife, Mabel P.; and his son, Paul. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, October 25, 11 a.m. at Lind-quist's Ogden Mortuary, 3408 Washington Blvd. Friends may call Monday from 6-8 p.m. and Tuesday from 9:45-10:45 a.m. at the mortuary. Interment, Lindquist's Washington Heights Memorial Park, 4500 Washington Blvd. The family wishes to express their appreciation to Mountain Ridge Assisted Living and Hospice Alliance for all of their loving care.
